EDMONTON MEN PLAY PART IN 1ST DIVISION

City Men Active In Motor-cycle Squadron On Defence Patrols

By ROSS MUNRO
ON THE ENGLISH COAST, Dec. 11—(CP)—The book of the day for the British navy is a motor-cycle reconnaissance squadron operating with the 1st Canadian Division in the coastal defence area. The unit carries out lengthy patrols by night and day in front-line territory.

The unit is a new job for these squads, formed only four months ago and now firmly established in the Canadian army operations.

A ride with a western Canadian division on a dark patrol shows that there are plenty of thrills and danger for this modern mechanized cavalry.

PATROL
One evening the dusk patrol under Lieut. Arthur Duck of Kamloops, B.C., went into the open countryside in a silent, efficient motor-cycle in a silent, efficient motor-cycle in a silent, efficient motor-cycle.

EMPIRE MAKES HOLIDAY TOYS FOR CHILDREN

War Changes Origin Of Playthings For Young Canada

OTTAWA, Dec. 14—(CP)—The way things look now, what with Santa Claus being governed by popular demand, the war is having a marked effect on the toys Canadian youngsters will receive this Christmas.

While children will have as many toys as they ever did, the war has brought a change in the origin of playthings and their nature. For one thing the war means that more British and American toys than ever before are on display, according to department store buyers.

SAME CONDITION
These same buyers say the same war, which prevails across the country, and down the line of statistics on toys imports gives some idea of the change.

In 1939, the bureau reports, imports of German toys to Canada were valued at $1,000,000. In 1940, they were valued at $1,000,000.

During 1939 the United States sent $200,000 worth of toys to Canada. The United Kingdom sent $100,000 worth of toys to Canada.

Figures for 1940 are not available, but it is believed that the United States will send more toys to Canada than in 1939.

CANADIANS BENEFIT
At the same time there is less demand for Japanese goods, the bureau said. This is because of the embargo on Japanese goods.

The bureau also says that the demand for British toys is increasing. This is because of the embargo on Japanese goods.

FIRMS ASK FOR CONCESSION ON FEDERAL TAXES

OTTAWA, Dec. 14—(CP)—Some Canadian companies already have approached the finance department for tax concessions on the ground their operations provide the Dominion with foreign exchange needed for war purchases abroad. The Canadian Press learned last night.

Applications have been received from several gold and wood-pulp producers and manufacturers whose products go to the United States. A department spokesman said they are under consideration.

Provision also was made for use of credits against future taxes, such as was used in the tax credit plan for stimulating private capital expenditures which was introduced in the last pre-war budget.

The intention, Mr. Hiley said, was not to subsidize exports, but to provide for special allowances for depreciation or depletion of capital assets used in Canada's war work. That sort of help has been given to war industries.

Youth Training Facilities May Be Used To Instruct Canadian Army Tradesmen

OTTAWA, Dec. 14.—(CP)—Canada-wide facilities of the youth training program may be used to provide courses of instruction in certain trades for selected men from the Canadian active army. It was learned authoritatively Friday, at the labor department.

Consideration is being given to the proposal but no decision has been announced. It is understood that 5,000 men would be involved if the scheme is adopted. The youth training branch of the department has already co-operated with the defense department in providing courses for some 800 men who attend classes as part of their military training.

ARMY ARTIFICERS

For the past 18 months the branch has been training men to prepare them as air force ground crew, and for war industries. Schools in existence throughout the dominion and facilities of all technical schools were used during the past summer holiday season.

Speaking in Hamilton, Ont., last night, Minister of Defense, Mr. Mackenzie King, said that the government was prepared to provide training as artificers for 5,000 men selected from the Canadian active army. The dominion-provided youth training program would be the natural body to carry on any such undertaking.

This program is similar to the "Buffalo plan" of training workers for jobs in defense industries in Buffalo, N.Y., where 1,500 formerly unemployed persons have graduated from the plan's training in preparation for the war effort.

In the year ended March 31, 1940, the government paid provincial claims amounting to $47,821.

In Buffalo, N.Y., says Martin H. Murphy, director of defense training, estimated 12,000 persons there who were trained in special schools to assist in the war effort.

In the year ended March 31, 1940, the government paid provincial claims amounting to $47,821.

U.S. OFFICER SEES SINKING OF NAZI SHIP

Gives Eye-witness Account Of Destruction Of Merchant Vessel

KEY WEST, Fla., Dec. 14.—(AP)—A United States naval officer said Friday that shots fired from the German tanker Rhein by the British cruiser Canada sank the tanker after she had been burning for more than 16 hours.

He was aboard the destroyer Macleach of the United States Key West naval patrol. Officers and crew of the destroyer witnessed the capture of the tanker and the attempted scuttling by her German crew.

His account was the first eye-witness description of the incident. This was the first report of the sinking of the Rhein, the capture of which, disclosed yesterday in Washington, was confirmed by the British Admiralty.

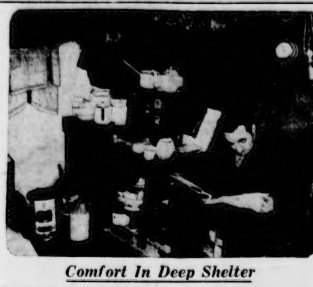

The Netherlands warship Van Kingbergen had extinguished the fire on the Rhein and averted its sinking.

Comfort In Deep Shelter

Sale from the messes of German bombers routing over from captured airfields in the Low Countries and France, residents of the Southeast United States are living part of their lives eight feet under the ground. In the tunnels carved out years ago from the solid chalk cliffs. Tired of dodging into their shelters at the first sound of enemy planes these hardy German folk moved what household belongings they needed into the caverns. Here a father, quite comfortable at that, reads by the light of a lamp in his family's section of the cave.

forward and stern and the German ship was a blazing inferno. Lifeboats were lowered and the crew abandoned ship.

"The Dutch crew did not board the Rhein until after she had been fired. They did not remain aboard long as they realized that it was impossible to extinguish the fire."

CREWMEN REMOVED

"The crewmen of the Rhein were removed from the lifeboats by Dutch sailors taken aboard the Van Kingbergen. Later they were transferred to the British cruiser Curlew as prisoners. The Canadian did not arrive until the tanker was in flames."

"Upon reaching the scene, the British warship circled both in the immediate area, playing flashlight on them to learn their identity."

"Lifeboats abandoned by the Germans were destroyed by members of the Macleach's crew because of their peril to navigation."

"United States destroyers followed the Rhein and the German ship hauled down from the time they left Tampico, Mexico, in an unsuccessful attempt to run the British blockade."

The officer said no attack was made on the Rhein and added that she was scuttled by her own crew.

MILITARY IS ADVANCED TO 'ARMY' STATUS

New Designation Replaces All Other Descriptive Terms

OTTAWA, Dec. 14.—(CP)—Although Canada has had military forces from the dawn of Canadian history, the designation, as result of an order-in-council, now has an "army" in the official sense for the first time. In the past Canadian military forces were called by other names although they functioned as armies.

Carrying out a decision announced last summer by Defence Minister Balcan, an order-in-council has been passed declaring all the military forces of Canada are to be called "The Canadian Army."

Formations, units or personnel placed on active service or continuous service of any kind are called "active" formations, units or personnel of the Canadian army. All other formations, units or personnel are called "reserve" formations, units or personnel.

Thus, it was said at the department Friday, the new designation puts an end to the term "Canadian Active Service Force" used since the start of the present war to designate the forces fully employed on military duties or on active service, and the term "non-permanent active militia," used for years to designate the troops who spent part of their time on military duties while carrying out civil occupations.

In peacetime, hitherto, Canada's military forces were divided into permanent active militia and non-permanent active militia. The former were full-time soldiers. In war up to now the practice has been to give a special name to the force mobilized for war.

In the first Great War the active army was called "The Canadian Expeditionary Force."

ITALIANS MAY GET ANGRY AT BRITISH FOLK

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—(AP)—The Italian radio warned Britain in effect tonight: "Be careful or we'll get mad."

In a broadcast heard here by the Columbia Broadcasting System, the Italian announcer said: "There is one thing that British propaganda fails to take into account, and that is the peculiar temper of the Italian people. The Italian is a light-hearted and easy-going fellow until he is aroused. Sometimes what he needs is just a little slap, then he stands up and fights to a finish, and the more blows the more dangerous he becomes. The British ought to remember this."

OTTAWA ISSUES NEW RULING ON CHRISTMAS GIFTS

OTTAWA, Dec. 14.—(CP)—New fine Christmas gifts sent to Canadians by relatives or friends abroad will be allowed to enter Canada even if the value of the gift exceeds that specified in the tariff item book respecting "casual donations." Revenue Minister Gibson announced Friday.

Tariff Item 600A states that "casual donations sent by persons abroad to friends in Canada or brought into Canada personally by non-residents as gifts to friends, and not a value advertising matter, tobacco or alcoholic beverages, when the value thereof does not exceed $5 in any one case, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the minister."

Previously it had been announced that certain items prohibited under the Canada under the War Exchange Conservation Act would be allowed entry as "casual donations."

Goods qualifying as "casual donations" are duty-free but when the value of the gift exceeds $5, the usual duties and taxes must be paid, the minister announced.

TODAY'S MESSAGE

By Reverend Canon G. G. Reynolds, B.A., L.Th.
Holy Trinity Church

"The Spirit Of God"

"God hath not given unto us a spirit of fear; but of Power, and of Love, and of a Sound Mind."

THE Spirit of God means Power, Love, Sound Mind. Just the very qualities of heart and mind that we need as individuals and as an Empire. Away with fear. Fear does not come from God. It comes from the devil as a temptation. When we feel the first stirrings of fear let us commit ourselves to God and He will not fail. Let us commit our loved ones to the Mother Church, our men on the Sea, the Land and the Air, who are on Active Service, to the care of God. Fear will go and God will give Power, Love and a Sound Mind.

Power is definitely given. St. Luke 24:49. "Behold I send the promise of My Father upon you; but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem until ye be endued with Power from on high." Let us wait on God in prayer and He will send us the Power we need for life's problems.

Love is the heart of the Christian message. "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son"—John 3:16. God has given many people the Love in giving them Jesus to serve their King and Country, and such gifts awaken and inspire our national life.

Sound Mind is a disciplined mind. There are many kinds of discipline but the highest discipline comes from the spirit of God inspiring our hearts and minds to work in harmony with the Mind of God.

Let us all seek the Spirit of God to give us Power, Love and a Sound Mind.

WESTERN MEN PATROL COAST AREA ENGLAND

In Armored Vehicles
Troops Protect Forward
Defence Positions

By Russ Murok
ON THE ENGLISH COAST,
Dec. 14.—(CP)—Co-operation with motorized, tank and bicycle troops, then came manned by troops from Western Canada waved a mass of patrols over the forward defence positions on the coast.

It was one of the most active and vigilant carried out by the British, from the dawn of the storm along the sea. The heavy armored vehicles, tanks and bicycles, were sent from the west, and the coast was patrolled to guard against the possibility that enemy parachute troops might drop within the Canadian lines.

MIDNIGHT PATROL
With the enemy on a landing in the night, the British went out to meet them in the dark. The British troops were sent from the west, and the coast was patrolled to guard against the possibility that enemy parachute troops might drop within the Canadian lines.

The carrier in charge of Cpl.
C. H. McNeill, of Vancouver, with Cpl. Fred Smith, of the same unit, and Cpl. W. B. Webber, of the same unit, were in the driver's seat.

From a post on the coast, the carrier spread back into the countryside as far as 100 miles in the direction of the coast. The carrier was a heavy machine, and it was a very comfortable riding of all armored fighting vehicles.

ON THE ALERT

coast, and it was on the alert for any sign of the enemy. The

BRITONS HOPE FOR TANGIBLE AID FROM U.S.

Queen's Brother In Broadcast Urges More Effective Help

LONDON, Dec. 14.—(CP)—The British people hope for more effective aid from the United States, Hon. David Bruce Lyon, brother of Queen Elizabeth, said Friday night on the British Broadcasting Corporation's "Britain Speaks" feature.

Lyon had received some "very useful material" from the United States, and the British people were grateful for it. The average British person was "very grateful" for the material received from the United States, and the knowledge that it may take a more definite shape has not helped on the minds of those in Germany and Italy.

TELL RETURNS
But the average British doubted that his country had received effective material aid from the United States.
He said that whatever material help has been received from the United States had been paid for "in the United States" and that the United States made 30 destroyers available to Britain in return for the material aid. He said that the United States had "told returns" to Britain.

MATA HARI'S DAUGHTER

By Maurice Dekobra and Leyla Georgie

CHAPTER THIRTY-THREE
The Dutch before the invasion of Poland and Finland—people were asking when would that war begin?
But Poland and Finland were so far away. Everywhere—even in France and England—the hope still flourished that somehow, in some mysterious way, the threatened catastrophe would be averted.
On clear days, German observation planes flew in heavenly fashion over England, photographing docks, airfields, gasoline stores—and the royal residences. German U-boats continued to exert daily toll. But even in Finland, there were no German falling, no cities burning, no German guns that fired not only, German planes that would not fly.

WEIGHTED WORDS

The reason for this popular title will not be apparent until after you solve the puzzle. However, you can see that each of the letters combinations at right needs the added weight of a letter on each end, to make it into good English. Of course, there are many initial and terminal letters that might be used in the middle. But you are to find initial and terminal letters that form an acrostic when read downwards. Can you do it?

Answer tomorrow.
